

PAIN IN BACK? VERIFY'S BACKERS

How often you fee that duil, tired ache in your back and wonder what causes it. Look out for it. There is never a pain without a cause and the cause of this pain is going to ay you up some day for months. It tells of a weakness, and you should cure it. Your kidneys may be crying for needed help; your spinal nerves may be exhausted and want strength; you may have locomotor ataxia in its first stage, or lumbago, all of which are serious and need to be cured to protect your Crack Jockey Handled Compensation in Splendid Style-Geo. C. Bennett's Dr. Walmsley Won Pulled Up.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL New Orleans, Lat., Jan. 18-It was any bing but ideal racing weather to-day. A heavy rainstorm which began at daylight seemed to reach its fury just about the lime the racing began. All during the afternoon he rain came down in shorts and at time was so thick that the work of distinshing cotors was a hard job. Iwspite ese inclement conditions, there was quite a large crowd out. The rate and a sixeenth bundlesp was a most exciting one. lawson, who rode the winner, Compensaon, never rode a better race in his life He allowed Luckman, the favorite, to act as pace to the head of the stretch, when he drew up on even terms with him and in the final strides drew away and wen by a neck, but with plenty left. Compensation and Destor Vaughin were second choices at Dector Walmsley and Tom Kongsley opened equal choices in the first. Walmsley, opened equal choices in the first. Walmsley, however, received the play and went to the post an even-money favorite. It was raining hard when they got away, and bester Walmsley at once assumed commant. He opened up a gap of two lengths down the back stretch, which was increased to three lengths in the surelich. He was pulled up, Lennep disposed of Tom Kingsley early in the run and got the place by a half dozen lengths from captain thiny Williamson's golding. The others were strung out a numbered yards.

he second race was being run and it was almost impossible to distinguish the colors. Sam Fullen went to the post a warm fa-vorite, with El Caney and Magic Light secand in demand, Carrie I, an outsider, and Sam Fullen raced head and hear to the traight, when Carrie-1, dropped out of it El Caney, cutting the corner, saved ground, but thred bydy to the last sixteenth and milet by three lengths.

Marble, at olds of 25 to 1, won the short Van Brunt. Very few of the crowd noticed Van Brunt. Very few of the crowd noticed that the first time around Markle ran outside the course at one point and from last secured first p wition. The Judges saw it, however, and promptly disqualified the winer. Ferkins, the favorite, was moved up to second place by the disqualification Brakeman, the second choice, lost his titler at the Livermool. iast and on the end won with ease. Certains and Agitator cut out the running to the head of the stretch. Then the former quit, but Agitator gave the favorite quite a brush for a tew yards. Cathedral, coming strong at the finish got third money.

MARRIED A CHORUS GIRL.

Young Chicagoan Took Miss Ethel Dixon for His Bride.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL. New York, Jan. to.-Frank Daniels's pretty chorus in 'The Ameer' at Wallack's Theater is minus one of its prettiest

Miss Ethel Dixon, the handsome young woman who until a few days ago led the cakewalk in "The Ameer." was privately married a week ago last Sanday evening in this city to Mr. Harold Wakem, a young was man from Chicago, the son of J. Wallace Wakem, a wealthy business man of that city. She has retired permanently from the stage.

Miss Dixon, who halis from Harrodsburg Ky, only made het professional debut with Mr. Daniels's company last autumn. It is said that as a child she knew Mr. Wakem, and that they met again accidentally in this city after Miss Dixon's decident, was considered and after a brief couriship they were quietly married.
